Objectives

The objectives for the Academic Leadership Program, which apply across all three sessions, are listed below:

- To learn more about the organization, operations, and physical infrastructure of each institution, as well as their similarities and differences
- To consider the skills and attributes of effective academic leaders, and the challenges of becoming an academic leader
- To consider current and future challenges and opportunities in higher education
- To recognize and implement the values of diversity, self-awareness, and ethical leadership
- To meet and develop professional relationships with colleagues through interactive sessions, seminars and on-campus activities
